Potomac River Fisheries Commission Meeting

Released August 31, 2006

COLONIAL BEACH, VA — Vice-chairman William Rice, Sr. announced today that the Potomac River Fisheries Commission will hold its next regular meeting on Thursday, September 14, 2006 at 2:00 p.m. in the John T. Parran Hearing Room of the Potomac River Fisheries Commission Building, 222 Taylor Street, Colonial Beach, Virginia.

Items on the agenda include but are not limited to: reports from the finfish, crab and oyster/clam advisory committees; a crab harvest report; the adoption of the 2006-2007 oyster season dates, times and limits, an update on the non-native oyster EIS study, reviewing items to consider for a public hearing and a presentation on a tagging study of diseased striped bass.

Other items on the agenda include but are not limited to: determining if there will be a fall gill net season and a summary of the August ASMFC meeting.

PRFC does not discriminate against individuals with disabilities; therefore, if you are in need of reasonable accommodations due to a disability, please call (804) 224-7148 at least three work days prior to the meeting date and identify your needs.
