The Potomac River Finfish Advisory Committee, which is comprised of private citizens and industry representatives, will meet at 6:00 p.m. on Tuesday, February 12, 2009 in the John T. Parran Hearing Room at the PRFC Office, Colonial Beach, Virginia.

Items on the agenda will include, but may not be limited to: developing recommendations for the 2010 seasons, size and creel limits for the recreational and commercial fisheries pertaining for Black Sea Bass and Summer Flounder. The committee will receive an update on the sport fishing federal registry.

Other items on the agenda will include: a discussion on making fish cull panels mandatory for pound nets in the Potomac River. The committee will also solicit nominations for committee membership vacancies.

This meeting is open to the public and all interested persons are invited to attend. PRFC does not discriminate against individuals with disabilities; therefore, if you are in need of reasonable accommodations due to a disability, please call (804) 224-7148 or (800) 266-3904 no later than three workdays prior to the meeting date and identify your needs.
