Potomac River Fisheries Commission Meeting

Released August 29, 2013

COLONIAL BEACH, VA — Chairman Dennis C. Fleming announced today that the Potomac River Fisheries Commission will hold its next regular meeting on Thursday, September 12, 2013 at 9:00 a.m. in the John T. Parran Hearing Room of the Potomac River Fisheries Commission Building, 222 Taylor Street, Colonial Beach, Virginia. Mr. Fleming invites all interested persons to attend this open public meeting.

Items on the agenda include but are not limited to: a presentation on seafood marketing by representatives of the states of Maryland and Virginia, a crab harvest report; a report from PRFC's Oyster/Clam Advisory Committee and Oyster Sub-committee, a presentation of the American Eel YOY survey by VIMS and an update on the status of the Potomac River Atlantic Menhaden harvest.

Other items on the agenda include: a summary of the August ASMFC meeting, adopting the 2013-2014 gill net and oyster seasons, presenting a revised 2013-2014 budget to include updates to the Operations Manual and a delinquent seafood catch report hearing. The Commission will also discuss Regulations to consider for a future public hearing.

PRFC does not discriminate against individuals with disabilities; therefore, if you are in need of reasonable accommodations due to a disability, please call (804) 224-7148 at least three work days prior to the meeting date and identify your needs.
